Help Wanted Men 50
(Salaried Jobs)

ARTIST?
DESIGNER? DRAFTSMAN?

We have an empty drawing board down here that needs a boss. If you like mechanical drawing and can see neatness and control in your work, we want to talk to you, even if you feel you have a littel imagination regarding efficiency and method.

A slide rule is specified for the job so we won't be running shy of arithmetic, we use it all the time. We also often like to work in decimals.

A capable and concientious person is the very one who could easily be scared off by some of our ads. Don't be. We only want you to feel easy and confident about the idea of working on our engineering type drawing board.
